BANDIT MULTIPLIES DEMANDS. Further Release Conditions Include Kingdom of His Own. A cablegram from Tangier last night says: Raisouli has been notified by the sultan's deputy that all his terms have shaded lawns. Rooms single or en suite. Private > will not be followed by still more, the naarmy; thirdly, the payment of £11,000 ransom; fourthly, the release of all tribes-men; fiftthly, the arrest and imprisonment of certain government shelks whom Raisouli accuses of having been parties to his original arrest; sixthly, a grant by the sultan of the villages and districts, Zenat and Alrish, to be entirely independent of ouli's sole jurisdiction.

The fifth stipulation was partly carried out today by the arrest of certain loyal, innocent sheiks whose tribes have been almost the only loyal supporters of the government through the rebellion. The act will cause keen dissatisfaction in their tribes, and in cases where arrests have not been accomplished the tribesmen will probably anarchy be increased. This complete sur-render by the Moorish government to Raisouli can but increase the insecurity here. Two shelks of Boni M. Suar have been Two shelfs of Boni M Suar have been imprisoned by the governor of Tangler This fulfills another of Raisouff conditions for the release of his captives, Messrs. Perdicaris and Varley. The shelks imprisoned are two of those who helped to treacherously capture Raisouli some time ago.

British Gain Territory by Award. A cablegram from Rome last night says: The award of the King of Italy in the Anglo-Brazilian arbitration regarding frontiers of British Gulana, which was handed zilian minister here yesterday, is in favor of Great Britain. The king's decision consists of a lengthy preamble, followed by the award, delimitating the boundary. The preamble sets forth the terms of the treaty under which King Victor Emmanuel was selected as arbitrator, points out the conditions under which the sovereignty of territory which is not the domain of any state may be acquired, and says that, considerpossession of the disputed territory, while Holland, first, and Great Britain, after-ward, did establish effective rights of sovin those zones cannot be precisely fixed and as with the present knowledge of the geography of the country, it is impossible to equally divide it, therefore, it has been decided to divide the territory according to
